

Surrounded by a pinewood of about seven hectares in one of the most beautiful and intact parts of the island covered with the typical Mediterranean vegetation, the Mezzatorre - Resort & SPA is located in Forio d'Ischia, not far from the wonderful villa where the famous Italian movie director Luchino Visconti once lived. The hotel is perched on a bluff above the sea and has a special and strategic position offering guests tranquillity and a magic atmosphere.